For the MBE, focus on recalling the law and applying it to factual situations, unlike the essay section where you need to recite a rule word-for-word in your answer. What's important here is knowing the rule internally (grasp of the law) and how that rule relates to factual situations (application).

A Step-by-Step Approach on How to Study & Prepare for the MBE

I like the book Strategies and Tactics for the MBE, and I'm a fan of AdaptiBar. There are some lesser-known programs such as Smartbar and Zipbar that I often recommend. In general, I think students need MBE questions outside of the questions provided by their bar-review company unless the company is using official licensed questions.
